

Worldview Studies

Week Six

Cory Bennett, 671-3059

corygb@charter.net

If the foundations are destroyed, what can the righteous do? Psalm 11:3

In those days there was no king in Israel. Everyone did what was right in his own eyes.

Judges 17:6

Read Chapter 10 and 11 in text – Economics and History

Read The Origen of Political Correctness (passed out in class) and work at understanding the worldview principles. This article will be used in future classes

Find 3 articles – same topics in Economics and/or History

Study Help

How to Get Better Grades and Have More Fun by Steve Douglass and Al Janssen

This book is available on Amazon.com for very reasonable prices. It is an easy read with some very helpful ideas.

Optional Reading

The Law, Frederic Bastiat, http://www.fee.org/pdf/books/The_Law.pdf

The Patriot's Handbook, George Grant, Ph. D., Published by Highland Books
ISBN 1-888306-21-1

Original Intent, David Barton, Published by Wallbuilder Press
ISBN 0-925279-50-1

Goal in Life

Discover who Jesus made me to be and live out the image of Christ that permeates the “me” that He created.

The study of Christian worldview is a study of how the world works. It is learning to understand the divine “blue prints” of our lives, and the social order as it was framed in the mind of God.